Supporting Information and Requested Funds

Tell us about your mission. Please include:

- your mission statement;
- a brief history of your mission (if new, why and how was it started);
- goals and values you seek to achieve;
- any affiliation with a larger organization; and,

- a description of the community you serve including, but not limited to, your service area, its demographics, expected number of persons to reach.

You may attach an additional page if needed.

Please describe in detail how the funds will be used and what impact you seek to make.

Have you identified any opportunities for improvement in the program or activity?

Please attach an operational budget for your mission including any other sources of revenue.

Do you expect any barriers to achieving your goals for using these funds? If so, please explain those barriers and how you might adjust or overcome them.

Will you need to secure any other non-financial support from First Church? (e.g. volunteers, donated items, collaboration with other organizations, facilities, etc.) for your mission? If so, please explain.

Please provide a brief timeline of your program planning for the grant period.

Submission of Application

Please submit your application or address any questions to serve@lextogether.org.
